

Let's Go Camping!

Have someone ask you for words to fill in the blanks. Then read the story out loud.

Here are some helpful tips for setting up a _____ adjective

campsite. First, find a flat spot to pitch your _____.
noun

Then, unroll your sleeping bag so you have a _____ place to sleep. After your campsite is setup, find a trail and do some _____. Count the number of trees and _____ verb ending in -ing plural noun you can identify. Use your binoculars to see _____ up plural noun
adjective

close. When you're ready to cook your _____ make sure noun

you ask _____ for help. Camp stoves a cartoon character use gas, which can be very _____. You could also adjective

use a _____ for toasting marshmallows. Once the sun sets,
noun

turn on your battery-powered _____ so you can see in the dark. If you're feeling spooky, you and your fellow campers could gather around the _____ and tell scary ghost
noun

noun

stories about _____. Remember to stare up in the plural noun

sky to look for _____!
plural noun

PASSPORT TO ADVENTURE

Your ticket to outdoor fun