

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions:

- + This Trimble® Outdoors™ package includes a pre-pay Boost Mobile™ phone and a free airtime card that allows you to activate your Boost™ account.
- + When you start Trimble Outdoors for the first time your Boost account will be automatically charged $9.99. This will allow you to use Trimble Outdoors for 30 days. After 30 days, whenever you start Trimble Outdoors your Boost account will be charged $9.99 for another 30 days.
- + You can make calls using your Trimble Outdoors phone as any other cell phone and pay for the calls using the money available in your account.
- + You can recharge your account using $20, $30 or $50 Re-Boost® cards stocked at thousands of retail locations. You can also use a credit card to recharge your account online at boostmobile.com or you can recharge directly from your phone by dialing 2-3-3 (ADD).
- + When your account balance reaches zero, you have 60 days to Re-Boost your service. If you don't Re-Boost within these 60 days, your Boost Mobile service will be terminated. You will be able to use the Boost Mobile service on the same phone after that, but with a new phone number and after paying a reactivation fee.
- + You can recharge your account as often as you like, but if you don't recharge your account at least once every 90 days, your account balance will be brought to zero and you will have 60 days to recharge your account to avoid your account service being terminated.
